

Home & Garden Show Exhibitors

- ✿ Antique Garden Accents
- ✿ At Home America
- ✿ Country Ironworks
- ✿ Countryside Plants
- ✿ Designs by John
- ✿ J & M Ag Service
- ✿ Emerald Earth
- ✿ Ferns & Foliage
- ✿ Gary Franz ReMax Team
- ✿ Garden Creations, Etc.
- ✿ Grapevine Promotions
- ✿ Green Growers
- ✿ Harvest Greenhouse
- ✿ Harvey County Farmers Market
- ✿ Neff Family Farm
- ✿ Rebath of Wichita
- ✿ Roadrunner Antiques
- ✿ Tupperware!
- ✿ Walton Rural Life Elementary
- ✿ Water Source Technology
- ✿ Wichita Rain Barrels

Door Prize Drawings all Weekend!

Sponsored By:

K-STATE Research and Extension Harvey County

Harvey County Courthouse
800 N Main, Room 11
Newton, KS. 67114
Phone: 316-284-6930
Fax: 316-283-6183
Email: seckert@ksu.edu
www.harvey.ksu.edu

K-State Research & Extension is an equal opportunity employer & provider. K-State Research & Extension is committed to making its services, activities & programs accessible to all participants. If you have special requirements due to physical, vision or hearing disabilities, please contact Scott Eckert at 316-284-6930

Harvey County Home & Garden Show

"Garden For Tomorrow"

National Guard Armory
400 Grandview
Newton, Kansas

March 31 & April 1
2012

Cost: $1.00 Admission

www.harveycountyhomeandgarden.com

Saturday & Sunday

2:00 PM

Kids—Make a Gourd

Birdhouse—FREE!

LAWN AND GARDEN SEMINARS

SATURDAY, MARCH 31

9:00 AM—5:00 PM

10:00 “Considerations for Growing Fruit”

Larry Crouse, Horticulture Agent
K-State Research & Extension, Butler Co.
Things you should consider before deciding to grow fruit in Kansas

11:00 “Annual vs. Perennials and Growing Great Flowers ”

Jason Graves, Horticulture Agent
K-State Research & Extension, Ctrl KS Ds
Learn why annuals are an important part of any flower garden & how to grow great annual & perennial flowers.

12:00 Noon “Perfect Perennials for our Wacky Climate”

Jan Longhofer
Sedgwick County Master Gardener
Learn about Perennials that grow great in Kansas

1:00 “A Garden for All Seasons”

Scott Vogt, Dyck Arboretum
How to use native plants in Landscape

2:00 “Small Yard? We’ve got Plants to Fit”

Dr. Cheryl Boyer,
Kansas State University
Power lines, easements, neighbors - Oh my! If you’ve got a challenging spot with a need for small trees or shrubs, you won’t want to miss this. Learn about plants that fit...and thrive in our climate.

3:00 “Water-Wise Plants”

Bob Neier, Horticulture Agent
K-State Research & Extension, SG. Co.
Water-wise trees & landscape plants

4:00 “If you plant it, They will come”

Dr. Bob Simmons, Newton
Attracting Butterflies to your garden

SUNDAY, APRIL 1

1:00 PM—5:00 PM

1:00 “Heirloom Vegetables

Jacque Spangler
Harvey County Master Gardener
History & selection of heirloom vegetables

2:00 “Rain Barrels”

Diane Dorsch
Sedgwick Co. Master Gardener
Every Drop Helps!

3:00 “Kitchen Gardens”

Kay Neff, Neff Family Farms
Harvey County Master Gardener
Plants to grow & use in a kitchen garden

4:00 “Rain Gardens”

Diane Dorsch
Sedgwick County Master Gardener
How to make a rain garden in your own backyard

